Department of History
Session 2019-20

EVENTS & PROGRAMMES

LECTURES/SEMINARS/WORKSHOPS

1 •E- lecture

Date:09.06.2020

Topic: Evolution of Indian Foreign Policy since Independence to Era of Liberalism

Speaker: Prof. Keshav Mishra(Head, Department of History, BHU)

Objective: In this session Prof. Keshav Mishra discussed about how India' s foreign policy has evolved from strong emphasis on Non- alignment during Nehru era to a more pragmatic "multi-alignment" approach in recent times, integrating elements of liberalism as India seeks to play a more active role on the global stage.

2 • E- lecture

•Date: 10.06.2020

Topic: Issue of Identity Politics: Communalism, Regional & Caste consciousness Dalit politics

Speaker: Prof. Gangadharan (Department of History, BHU)

Objective: The lecture was presided by Prof. Gangadharan in which he gave detailed lecture on rise of caste consciousness in Dalits in post- independence era.

3 • E- lecture

•Date: 11.06.2020

Topic: World between two world wars: With Special reference to Russia

Speaker: Dr. Sanjeev Kumar(Department of History, VCW Rajghat)

Objective: In this lecture Dr. Sanjeev Kumar highlighted the period between World War I and World War II which is also known as the Interwar period. He also discussed about turmoil in Europe, including the Russian Civil War and the collapse of the Russian Empire.

4 • E- lecture

Date: 12.06.2020

Topic: Content & Contours of Fascism

Speaker: Dr. Neeraj Singh(Department of History, CPM College)

Objective: The topic of this lecture "Content and contours of Fascism" was precisely elaborated by Dr. Neeraj Singh. The ideology of fascism and it's spread in other European countries was thoroughly discussed in this session.

5 • E- lecture

Date:13.06.2020

Topic: Basic Tenets and Principles of Nazism

Speaker: Dr. Kamlesh Kumar Tewari (Department of History, GGDC)

Objective: Dr. Kamlesh Kumar Tewari gave detailed lecture on the ideology of Nazism which includes the notion of a master race and the idea of territorial acquisition and expansion.